2019-2020 Student Group Mini-Grant Application

Campus Compact Mid-Atlantic (CCMA) is pleased to announce mini-grants for student groups desiring to strengthen their service-learning and community engagement efforts in the 2019-2020 academic year. Individual grant amounts of $250 will be available for four college and university student groups to assist with community events, volunteer recruitment, student engagement, student conferences, or any other activity promoting student engagement within the community. Projects and activities engaging with K12 schools, equity issues, and food security are particularly encouraged.

If this application is successful, the applicant agrees to share with CCMA copies of evaluations, photos, and any other relevant documents from the project or activity the grant money is used for. Mini-grant recipients agree to use the CCMA logo (in addition to their campus logo) when publicizing the workshop/event/activity and, if applicable, will publicize and make the event available to other members of the CCMA network.

Who we are:

Campus Compact Mid-Atlantic (CCMA) is a non-profit membership association of public, private, 2- and 4-year colleges and universities. CCMA provides leadership to colleges and universities in Maryland, Washington, DC, and Delaware by advocating, supporting, and encouraging institutional participation in academic and co-curricular based public service and civic engagement programs. CCMA strengthens the capacity of member institutions to enhance student learning and to meaningfully engage with communities. CCMA is supported through a combination of institutional dues, federal and private grants, and in-kind contributions. The CCMA office is located at Hood College in Frederick, Maryland. For more information, see our website at midatlantic.compact.org.
